Funding Available

The Shropshire School Direct training programme is funded by tuition fees paid by the trainee who will be eligible for the standard student support package, including training, bursaries, tuition fee loans and scholarships. The University reserves the right to revise rates in line with inflation or changes to higher education policy. The University website will display the costs involved. Attractive grants and bursaries are available for shortage subjects with larger amounts available for higher degree classifications. These are available on the DfE/NCTL and UCAS websites.
